RECONNECT LIVE

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

It's time! Time to leave the house, leave the office, rejoin your peers, and take advantage of relevant and timely information at this year's NACM Connect Credit Conference – ReConnect Live! We've had a good deal of success with our online member discussion series, Coffee with Connect, but imagine how much more valuable a full day of live education, networking opportunities, and learning about the new products and services our partners are offering would be.

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND

The credit profession has never experienced the changes in laws, technologies, and other information more than the transformations happening now. Come and learn; come and ReConnect Live! Education should be a lifelong endeavor. Plus, earn Continuing Education Units, certification and recertification points for both learning and attendance at an NACM Sponsored event.

YOUR REGISTRATION INCLUDES

- General sessions
- Continental breakfast and buffet lunch
- Networking reception
- Exhibit hall entry and contests
- Morning and afternoon breaks and refreshments
- One full day of concurrent educational sessions

CONNECT TO WHAT MATTERS

Charlie Ruiz is a former professional baseball player whose promising career with the Colorado Rockies was unexpectedly cut short by a devastating injury. He discovered that true success and fulfillment come not just from achievements on the field, but from choosing Presence Over Preference in every aspect of life.

Playing your own game in both the short and long term while staying connected to what matters most. Now, as a performance coach, relationship expert and speaker, Charlie brings practical insights through an approachable, engaging and authentic style of storytelling.

Charlie's coaching and speaking journey starts and continues in the spirit of high-performance. As a former professional athlete, now mental performance coach and communication consultant he's been integrated in all facets of leadership development and mental performance.

He's facilitated upwards of 600 + management training for companies across the start-up and fortune 100 (MLB, Google, Coinbase, SAP, Apple, and Starbucks). Working in professional sports, high-tech and non-profit, he's coached founders, professional coaches, and C-suite executives in both group and 1:1 settings.

EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS

9:45 – 11 a.m.

FRAUD IN B2B COMMERCE, NOW POWERED BY GENERATIVE AI

David Fulham, Nuvo

Join us for an educational session to learn how to understand and address the new fraud vectors in B2B commerce more broadly, and your trade credit practice specifically. This session will provide a thorough analysis of the challenges and solutions for credit managers in preventing fraud, particularly with the rise of generative AI. Covered in this session will be types of fraud in B2B commerce; the impact of generative AI; the Impact on Credit Management; detection and prevention and best practices for minimizing fraud risk and enhancing the security of B2B transactions and credit management in the age of AI.

TRADE CREDITORS' ABILITY TO DENY CREDIT WHILE REMAINING COMPLIANT WITH THE ECOA AND REGULATION B

Wanda Borges, Esq., Borges & Associates

Perhaps the most important aspect of a credit executive's job is to determine the creditworthiness of a customer, potential or ongoing. When a credit investigation does not pass muster, credit should be denied or curtailed to safeguard your company from the risk of nonpayment. No trade creditor liked the Equal Credit Opportunity Act when it was first enacted in 1974 followed by Regulation B in 1975. And, the various amendments to the ECOA and Reg B have not made these popular rules and regulations. This program will guide the trade credit grantor through these statutes and the latest updates; and will provide you critical information to enable you to safely and legally deny credit and maintain compliance with these laws.

11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

CREDIT MANAGEMENT IN THE DIGITAL AGE

Naumann Hafeez, CEO, NetNow

Technology is playing a bigger and bigger role in today's credit departments. Credit management in the digital age can lead to greater efficiency and takes advantage of enhanced data-driven decision-making.

But within these new technologies lie both challenges and opportunities. We've come a long way in a short time – and there is more to come.

EFFECTIVE RISK MANAGEMENT STRATEGIES/USING ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE IN THE BRAVE NEW WORLD OF CREDIT

Matt Allison and Lee Fahrenz, Allianz Trade

Have you ever wondered how a credit insurance company evaluates, underwrites and monitors credit risk? How do they use (and you can too) futuristic risk assessment and inject AI (Artificial Intelligence) into underwriting principles to protect the bottom line? Tune in for this enlightening discussion and go behind the scenes – it's all about the information and more reliable than the weather channel.

1:30 – 2:45 p.m.

RECENT DECISIONS AND TRENDS IN BANKRUPTCY CASES AND LESSONS FOR TRADE CREDITORS

Thomas Fawkes, Tucker Ellis

Several important decisions and trends have emerged in bankruptcy cases in the past several years – and, in some cases, the past several months – that impact and inform trade creditors as they seek to maximize recovery from customers that are in Chapter 11. During this session, our speaker will discuss a cornucopia of various decisions and trends, as well as their impact on trade creditors and what trade creditors can learn to aid in maximizing recovery. Some of the topics that will be covered include third-party releases, the "Texas two-step," critical vendor status, consignments, subchapter V bankruptcy, and more!

HOW TO HAVE THE DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS

Diana Crowe, NACM Southwest

At one point in our life or another, we're going to be in a position that requires us to have a difficult conversation. Understanding WHY we have to have those conversations, HOW to actually have the conversation, and WHAT guidelines we should follow will help ensure the conversation goes as smoothly as possible AND brings about the desired results. This session reviews all these elements and incorporates techniques for doing them effectively.

3:15 – 4:30 p.m.

SEEING THE FUTURE: USING AI TO PREDICT AND ACT ON FUTURE DEDUCTIONS

Brian Shappell, Emagia

In the complex landscape of B2B credit management, deductions represent a significant challenge that can erode revenues and misrepresent accounts receivable (AR). Manual processing of these deductions can prove not only time-consuming and potentially error-prone but also costly, making it imperative for businesses to find more efficient solutions. Join us for an insightful session tailored where we delve into how AI-powered deductions management solutions can transform a credit department's deduction management process and, thus, overall efficiency. Discover how the right automation tool can handle up to 80% of manual deductions processing, transforming this low-value activity into a high-value one by creating and identifying deductions from various customer-provided remittances... and also cut dispute resolution times in half.

IV YEARS OF SUBCHAPTER V: A SMALL BUSINESS BANKRUPTCY RETROSPECTIVE

Michael Papandrea, Bankruptcy and Restructuring Department, Lowenstein Sandler LLP

Subchapter V of the Bankruptcy Code, which contains the small business provisions that Congress enacted to expedite and reduce the cost of Chapter 11 cases for small businesses, took effect in February 2020. On the heels of over four years living with Subchapter V, the speakers will discuss the nuts and bolts of Subchapter V small business cases, the differences between Subchapter V and other Chapter 11 cases, recent hot issues of interest to trade creditors in small business cases, and how small business debtors have been faring in Subchapter V cases. There will then be a discussion of the Final Report of the American Bankruptcy Institute Subchapter V Task Force, which made recommendations to Congress regarding the Subchapter V small business provisions and their impact on trade creditor rights.

$1,000 PRIZE DRAWING!

The NACM Membership Benefits Program includes the opportunity to significantly reduce your credit card and check processing fees. UTA-Worldpay provides these beneficial services. To be entered into a drawing for $1,000 at the conference, simply email copies of two recent monthly credit card merchant services statements or two recent monthly check guarantee statements to mfluegge@unitedtranzactions.com anytime between now and the conference or bring paper copies to submit to Matt Fluegge at the UTA-Worldpay Booth to be entered into a drawing for $1,000.

If you bring both credit card statements and check guarantee statements, you will receive two entries into the drawing. If emailing the statements, simply include the following in the subject line...."$1,000 Drawing, statements from Company Name". In addition, UTA will prepare and provide a free cost analysis to show how much you can save if you would switch credit card processors or check processors and utilize the NACM Membership Benefits Program through UTA-Worldpay.

The Robert L. Vodraska Scholarship Foundation

If you are unable to attend a conference this year but would like to contribute to the Scholarship Foundation, you can donate online at https://nacmconnect.formstack.com/forms/scholarship_donations. Every dollar counts!

Dear Member:

Since 2009 the Robert L. Vodraska Scholarship Foundation has been assisting credit professionals who are in need of financial aid in their pursuit of continuing education to help further their careers. Since that time, we have gifted nearly $70,000 in scholarships funded in large part by the generosity of the NACM Connect membership.

The fall conference season has always been a key fundraising period for the Foundation. Several activities take place during each conference that directly impact the amount of resources available for scholarship awards. These activities are low-cost and easy-to-do, and they add up to a substantial sum for our cause. If you are attending a conference this year in St. Louis, Chicago or Detroit, please consider participating in these fundraising efforts. The investment is small but the returns are huge.

We look forward to seeing you at one of our conferences and we thank you for considering to make a donation.
